This beautiful volume includes an amazing 100 folding designs, each one developed to complement different types of table layout, event, occasion or even specific foods. The folds are graded from simple designs that can be put together quickly to more complex folds that require starching and pressing for that special dinner party. Full of traditional and new ideas, there are napkins here for everything from a children's birthday party or a picnic to a cocktail party, a wedding or a large family celebration. Projects include the French lily for a formal dinner, a clown's hat for a young child, the lover's knot for a romantic dinner for two, or the cable for outdoor entertaining. Superbly illustrated with over 700 step-by-step photographs and illustrations, this expertly-presented instructional book makes the art of napkin folding accessible and easy to do. Rick Beech is an origami expert who has brought his creative folding skills to the art of the napkin. He has taught hundreds of workshops and has worked in film and television. Through his company, Paper Magic, Rick provided origami entertainment to a huge client base by performing at dinner parties, award evenings and other corporate functions. This beautiful volume includes an amazing 100 folding designs, each one developed to complement different types of table layout, event, occasion or even specific foods. The folds are graded from simple designs that can be put together quickly to more complex folds that require starching and pressing for that special dinner party.
