ACCADEMIA GALLERY

FLORENCE

Every tourist traveling to Florence plans to see the David by Michelangelo, conserved in the Accademia Gallery. Indeed, the Accademia Gallery is known in the world as the Museum of Michelangelo, due to the presence of his Prigioni and of the David, located in the Tribune.

However, this museum, the second most visited in Italy, offers much more to discover, such as a unique collection of gold-ground paintings or the numerous works by Giotto's contemporaries.

Ours is the ideal guide for enjoying the richest collection of artworks by Michelangelo to be conserved in a single museum, but also to discover the rest of a truly special museum.
