Ruling his LA hotel empire through determination and hard work, Reid Davenport is a mystery to many. Despite the media's interest in him, Reid steers clear of the limelight--until his life is broadcast in the tabloids, endangering not only his privacy, but that of his parents and his little sister.

He'd do anything to protect them...except listen to the fiery and intelligent PR pro, who's as beautiful as she is tempting. Every time she walks into his office, he fantasizes about bending her over his desk and kissing her. Every time she smiles at him, he wants to pull her closer and not let go.

Hailey Connor doesn't take on uncooperative clients. But the second she meets Reid, she's compelled to stay and help, even if she must fight his own broody ass to do it. He's bossy, demanding and so sinfully alluring that she knows she's in over her head. Reid may be infuriating, but when he talks about his family, she can't help but melt a little. With every kiss, they grow closer. With every touch, they fall deeper.

They're opposites...yet perfect matches. But when their different worlds collide, will it tear them apart or bring them together?
