A second chance he didn't see coming...

Wes was born with a competitive streak. Ever since he could walk, he's made it a point to never lose.

And he never did, until his girlfriend left him senior year of college and his professional sports career tanked.

Four years later, the last thing Wes needs as he prepares for the game of his life is his ex-girlfriend sauntering into his resort on the arm of her new fiancé. Then again, this might be Wes's opportunity to win back what he's lost.

Because if there's a chance Wes was wrong about Kaylee and she really had loved him, maybe he can break his mental block and win back his game--and the girl.
