Growing up in the small town of Redwood Falls should have been boring for Ethan Jackson but there's nothing boring about Ava Anderson. The girl is slowly driving him out of his mind. But what the hell's he supposed to do? She's his best friend's younger sister and there are certain rules you have to live by. So the question was, how long could he keep it contained and what the hell was her brother going to do when he found out what was in his head? And did Ethan really care?
