Fewer words. Sharper stories. Bigger impact.

Are you getting bogged down in lengthy prose and bloated descriptions? Time to say *F*ck the Details* and write stories that move!

Descriptive elements don't have to be speed bumps that grind everything to a halt. Ditch the fluff and craft lean stories that grab your readers by the eyeballs and pack a bone-crunching punch.

In this quick read you will learn how to:

- Write description that leverages common knowledge and the experience of the reader to omit details that the reader can imagine for you.
- Show a character's frame of mind with action, keeping the story moving.

- Identify which details to keep and which to throw away.

Through Joel's before-and-after story examples, you won't just learn what effective descriptions look like ... you'll understand how to craft them for yourself.

Trim the bloat. Up the action. *F*ck the Details!*
