Is your marriage vibrant and continually getting better or cold and growing worse with the passing of time? Whether you are more in love than on your wedding day or thinking there's no love left; read this book, apply the practical principles, and experience how God will transform your love and marriage.

Tom and Alane open to you the heartache of the past and the happiness found in the life changing principles of God's Word that have made their love vibrant and fulfilling.

Explore the painful pitfalls that every couple encounters. Be encouraged by Tom and Alane's experience and the experience of others as they have been willing to learn and live the practical "how to's" of reversing the fatal cycles of poor communication to become living testimonies of real love.

You, too, can have a marriage that is heart-to-heart with the one who stands by your side. Whether you are seeking to strengthen a good marriage or save a marriage headed toward disaster, you can have the "best" marriage possible when you combine your efforts with God's power. What are you waiting for?
