Neville Goddard (PDF, ePub, Mobi)

Neville Lancelot Goddard was born on 19 February 1905 in St. Michael, Barbados in the British West Indies, the fourth child in a family of nine boys and one girl. He came to the United States on board the S.S. Vasari to study drama at the age of seventeen (September 1922) and whilst touring with his dance company in England he developed an interest in metaphysics. On his return he gave up the entertainment industry to devote his full attention to the study of spiritual and mystical matters. Neville studied with a mentor, Abdullah, learning Hebrew, the Kabbalah, and the hidden symbolic meaning of Scripture. After travelling extensively throughout the United States, Neville eventually made his home in Los Angeles where, in the 1950s, he gave a series of talks on television and radio, and for many years lectured regularly to capacity audiences at the Wilshire Ebell Theater. In the 1960s and early 1970s, he confined most of his lectures to Los Angeles, New York, and San Francisco. He discussed his doctrine, referred to as "The Law," on television in the Los Angeles area, saying, "Learn how to use your imaginal power, lovingly, on behalf of others, for Man is moving into a world where everything is subject to his imaginal power."
