She will fight for what is hers.

How do you fight a man who's always five steps ahead?

When Katerina and her friends find themselves on the shores of a lost city, they race to reunite the amulet with the crown, only to discover they're not alone. Agents of the Red Knight haunt their every step, and as the darkness seeping across the land continues to spread, they're forced to resort to increasingly desperate measures.

Time is running out.

The curse can only be held back so long.

And as hope begins to fade, the friends find themselves turning to the most unlikely of allies.

Can they fulfill the ancient prophecy? Can they succeed where the others have failed?

Or will history once again repeat itself?

Be careful who you trust.

Even the devil was once an angel.
