Greg Jones shouted in a powerful voice, "In the name of Jesus, in the blood of Jesus." The associate pastor's shout was heard from above. Praise the Lord. Amber Jones, who with her sister lay protected under their father, saw a clear vision of whiteness. For her the terrifying roar was replaced with soft voices, like whispers. Amber saw and heard angels, holding up the part of the church where they were huddled. How wonderful and amazing. The Open Door Church was totally destroyed with only a pile of rubble left where the church stood. But praise the Lord nobody was injured. How amazing is that.

It was Christmas Eve and the Wellington Express was heading for disaster. The railway bridge had washed away. Life or death that night depended on how high up on the hillside of the Vajont Dam you were. This and many more true stories.
