The trek around the Torres del Paine circuit is one of the most inspirational journeys n the world.

Within this guide you will find both trekking and mapping information on the route.

We have created a new digital map of the area, and day to day mapping at different scales allows you to see the route clearly. GPS source data gives you a marked route from start to finish for every day of the trek.

The book includes a detailed trekking itinerary, route profiles for each day, superb photographs and video, advice on equipment and health, and a huge amount of information on the region.

This is the second book in the “Trek the World” series, put together with our partners, GEOCENTER, who live and work in Patagonia and have completed the journey many times.
