Money.

Of course she was after my money.

I don't know how the hell I could've convinced myself differently.

And now, she's pregnant with my child.

At least, she says she is.

I'm preparing my lawyers.

I'm gearing up for war.

Because there's a sliver of a chance the child is mine.

And my child won't be raised with anything less than the best.

But the second I chase Michelle back to her hometown, my heart sings.

My body comes alive.

My hands ache to touch her.

And suddenly, I'm inviting her back to my home to take care of her.

I don't know what's going on, but I sure as hell am going to find out.

I don't know if she's pregnant with my child, but I sure as hell am going to find out.

I don't know if she could love me the way I feel I love her.

But I sure as hell am going to find out.
